

Murray Print PhD

Professor and Chair of Education
Sydney School of Education & Social Work,
University of Sydney

Inclusive Citizenship Education in Australia: Building a strong democratic future

Lecture with discussion

This presentation examines how, and to what extent, Inclusive Citizenship Education (ICE) has been incorporated into Australian education. It examines school practice and central curriculum design as major 'strategies' for enhancing ICE in a highly multicultural society. Implications for Germany and Europe can be discussed.

Tuesday, 12 November 2019, 11:30–13:00
Callinstr. 20 (building 3425), Lernwerkstatt 3rd floor

An event organized by Leibniz Research Center
»Center for Inclusive Citizenship«

Kontakt:

Leibniz Universität Hannover
Forschungszentrum »Center for Inclusive Citizenship« (CINC)
Callinstr. 20 | 30167 Hannover

Sprecher: Prof. Dr. Dirk Lange

Geschäftsführung: Steve Kenner | Christiane Schröder
Tel.: +49 511 762-5594

www.cinc.uni-hannover.de